

XML Data Feeds

Product Overview

Our technical team understands your requirements for XML – and developing our feeds to ensure that our market-leading level of data gets to your system as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Product Detail

Our feeds include every on-the-ball event from every football match we cover. No-one covers more football, so that is a lot of data. We can tailor our service to ensure you get exactly what you require – from basic fixtures and results through to detailed positional analysis.

We can deliver this as quickly as you require it. If you need the XML pushed to your site as soon as an event occurs, our systems are set up to deliver detailed feeds directly from our unique live data collection operation. We can also collate and send cumulative and historical information to provide you with a depth of information that is second to none.

Our range of data feeds include:

- Fixtures and results
- Line-ups, league tables and live scores
- Live statistics by player and team
- Text commentary, available in 10 different languages
- Positional information
- Season-to-date cumulative statistics
- Historical data sets
